☐ Student

did not file a 2017 federal tax return because;

☐ I was not employed and did not have any income earned from work in 2017.

☐ I had too little taxable income to be required to file a tax return.

(If you are unsure whether or not you/spouse were required to file a tax return in 2017, please refer to Table 1-1 from IRS Publication 17 on the reverse side of this page.)

☐ I cannot provide W-2 forms for 2017 for wages earned because _____

Note: Employers are required to provide W-2 forms for employees; therefore, if you were an employee even part of 2017, you must attach a copy of all of your 2017 W-2's.

Table 1-1. 2017 Filing Requirements for Most Taxpayers

IF your filing status is...	AND at the end of 2017 you were...*	THEN file a return if your gross income was at least...
Single	under 65	$10,400
	65 or older	$11,950
Married filing jointly	under 65 (both spouses)	$20,800
	65 or older (one spouse)	$22,050
	65 or older (both spouses)	$23,300
Married filing separately	any age	$ 4,050
Head of household	under 65	$13,400
	65 or older	$14,950
Qualifying widow(er)	under 65	$16,750
	65 or older	$18,000

- * If you were born on January 1, 1953, you are considered to be age 65 at the end of 2017. (If your spouse died in 2017 or if you are preparing a return for someone who died in 2017, see Pub. 501.)
-  Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that isn't exempt from tax, including any income from sources outside the United States or from the sale of your main home (even if you can exclude part or all of it). Don't include any social security benefits unless (a) you are married filing a separate return and you lived with your spouse at any time during 2017 or (b) one-half of your social security benefits plus your other gross income and any tax-exempt interest is more than $25,000 ($32,000 if married filing jointly). If (a) or (b) applies, see the instructions for Form 1040 or 1040A or Pub. 915 to figure the taxable part of social security benefits you must include in gross income. Gross income includes gains, but not losses, reported on Form 8949 or Schedule D. Gross income from a business means, for example, the amount on Schedule C, line 7, or Schedule F, line 9. But, in figuring gross income, don't reduce your income by any losses, including any loss on Schedule C, line 7, or Schedule F, line 9.
-  If you didn't live with your spouse at the end of 2017 (or on the date your spouse died) and your gross income was at least $4,050, you must file a return regardless of your age.
