Advisor Notes:

Certificate of Achievement in General Education is designed to meet the core General Education requirements needed for students who anticipate transferring to one of the New Mexico Public Universities and pursuing a Bachelor's degree.

This worksheet is designed to help you successfully plan and track your progress toward your degree. It lists all of the current graduation requirements in the recommended sequence. For full course descriptions, please refer to the current catalog.

Courses only offered once a year are identified at the end of the course title with the following designations: $\mathbf{F}=$ fall; $\mathbf{S}=$ spring; SU = summer.

NOTE: Course enrollment determines whether a course will be offered each semester.

- All students must take the University Skills Placement Text prior to beginning this program.
- Student must have an ENMU Campus System cumulative GPA of 2.00 in order to meet graduation requirements.
- All lectures and corresponding labs must be taken simultaneously.
- Student should submit a Graduation Application before the close of the semester preceding the expected completion date.
Courses only offered once a year are identified at the end of the course title with the following designations: $\mathrm{F}=$ fall only; S= spring only.
