

UPLIFT EDUCATION

VOTE
ON Bond

3

- $2.475 million for Eastern New Mexico University-Roswell
 - Critical fire suppression safety improvements in three campus buildings: Arts & Science Center, Occupational Technology Center, and Physical Education Center
- $4 million for New Mexico Military Institute
 - Expansion of Bates Dining Hall

Total for Chaves County $6.475 million

NO TAX INCREASE

ELECTION DAY: NOV. 8

Early In-Person and Absentee Voting:
Begins October 11, 2022

Expanded Early Voting:
October 22 - November 5, 2022

Bond3forNM.com

Paid for by the ENMU-Roswell Foundation and NMMI Foundation

Vote on Library Bond B

Bond B on the November 8, 2022 ballot includes a total of $19 million for publicly funded academic, public, school, and tribal libraries in New Mexico. This GO Bond will provide $6 million each for Higher Education (academic) libraries, Public libraries, and Public School libraries. It will provide $1 million for NM Tribal libraries. The funds will be used to purchase library equipment, resource acquisitions, and information technology projects.

Unofficial amounts to be received by Roswell Public Library, academic (ENMU-Roswell and NMMI) libraries, and public school libraries (in Roswell, Dexter, Hagerman, Lake Arthur, and Sidney Gutierrez Middle School) in Chaves County are estimated to total over $500,000.

ELECTION DAY: NOVEMBER 8

Early In-Person and Absentee Voting:

Begins October 11, 2022

Expanded Early Voting:

October 22 - November 5, 2022

nmbondsforlibraries.wildapricot.org