Graduate, ENMU-Roswell (2014)
& Cornell University (2016)

"ENMU-R prepared me to be a mature student who transferred to Cornell University after acquiring the Associate of Business Administration. ENMU-R's support through their student, faculty and staff body enabled me to take part in community service and have a core academic background that were important for my acceptance to an Ivy League institution. I'm currently pursuing the Master of Public Administration at Cornell University, with a focus on social policy, and ENMU-R was the starting point of my higher education trajectory."
